

A photograph of a stone building at night. The building's facade is made of rough-hewn stone blocks. A row of seven arched windows is illuminated from within, casting a warm, golden glow. Below the windows, there are three dark, arched doorways. The overall scene is set against a dark, black background, emphasizing the light from the windows.

Les prêtres et l'équipe d'animation de la paroisse Sainte Aldegonde souhaitent à la communauté chrétienne et à tous leurs amis une année 2016 dans la paix et la lumière.